

Library Period

The second best practice that has been started is Library Period for all classes, wherein the teacher along with his/her class should come to the library and refer all the available resources as per their subject requirements. This initiative is taken to create students interest in library and accustom them to access and use library resources to the maximum.

