

Group Reading of Books

2nd January to 4th January, 2025

Dr. Rizvi Digital Library in its efforts to promote reading culture and create more interest towards library usage among students and teachers, has introduced monthly book review presentation and library period for students; which has shown positive results. Thus Library in its mission to revive reading culture among students and in support of government's initiative Vachan Sankalp Maharashtra organised various activities.

Group Reading of library books was organised where teachers were asked to send their students to library to take books of their choice and read for atleast one hour. This activity was planned for 3rd January, but with exams and other academic activities going on, book reading session was conducted over a period of 3 days, that is 2nd, 3rd and 4th January 2025. Good response was seen as many students issued the books on the same day. 59 students participated.
