

Book Review Competition 15th January 2025

Our library regularly organizes book review presentation twice every month for teachers and students. This has created interest in our readers who is regularly demanding for new books to read. This year's Book Review competition was organised on 15th January 2025 and saw a total of 21 presenters and an audience of 45 students & teachers attended the event. Mr. Ghulam Arif Khan, Editor Talking platform was the Judge of the event. He himself a reviewer, gave his insights about reviewing a book. Many were in awe of his expertise. He gave valuable inputs about the participants presentation and gave tips on how to improve one's reading and reviewing techniques. The students gave reviews covering different genres of books. Mr. Khan was very impressed by our student's confidence and presentation skills.

The poster is framed in red and features the Rizvi Education Society's logo at the top left, the Rizvi College logo at the top right, and a central stack of colorful books.
