

Book Review Presentation by Teachers , Students and Non-teaching staff

July – August 2025

Book review presentation is the best practice followed by Library to motivate students and teachers to borrow library books, increase their reading activity and promote reading culture . Teachers play an important role in motivating their students to revive their reading habits. This practice has shown a boost in self confidence among students during presentation and they are taking keen interest in recommending books to boost the quality of library collection. English department teachers and the librarians judges the presentations and give valuable inputs to improve their presentations.
